ARTICLE IV-FIDUCIARY POWERS

I hereby grant to the Personal Representative appointed herein the continuing, absolute, discretionary power to deal with any property, real or personal, held in my estate or in any trust, as freely as I might in the handling of my own affairs. E. To register and carry any property in his own name or in the name of his nominee or to hold it unregistered, but without thereby increasing or decreasing his liability as fiduciary.

J. To employ accountants, attorneys and such agents as it may deem advisable; to pay reasonable compensation for their services and to charge same to (or apportion same between) income and principal as he may deem proper.

K. Abandon, in any way, property which he determines not worth protecting.

L. With regard to all policies of insurance on my life which designate any Personal Representative hereunder as beneficiary, the Personal Representative specifically is authorized and empowered to perform the following acts:

(a) execute and deliver receipts and other instruments and to take such action as may be appropriate to obtain possession and control of such policies;

(b) execute and file any proofs of claim required to collect the proceeds thereof, and the receipt of my Personal Representative shall constitute full acquittance to insurance companies for all proceeds so paid; provided, however, that my Personal Representative shall be under no obligation to institute legal proceedings for the collection of proceeds of any policy until and unless he has been indemnified to his satisfaction for all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees;
